Who is Financial Surety Underwriters, LLC?

The heart and soul of Financial Surety Underwriters, LLC is Cyra B. Peterson. "Cy" has been in the Surety Bond field for more than 25 years. Financial Surety Underwriters, LLC is licensed to write bonds in all areas of the country.

Over the years Cy has developed the confidence and approval of the major surety providers and has authority to issue bonds. Among these are Zurich, American Contractors, The Hartford, Accredited, and Insko Dico to name a few.

Financial Surety Underwriters, LLC is located in North Metro Atlanta. Being a small but powerful player in the Surety Bond arena allows us to focus on providing our Customers with unparalleled personal service.

Why a Contract Surety Bond ?

Contract Surety Bonds perform a number of functions, including the guarantee that the bonded project will be completed in accordance with the contract specifications and that the suppliers and laborers to the contract will be paid for the goods and services supplied to the project.

What type of Contract Surety Bond

Would you Need? Here are a few.

Bid Bonds: Provide financial assurance that the contractor submitting a bid has been qualified by the surety to perform the work in accordance with the contract specifications.

Performance Bonds: Protects the owner from potential financial losses resulting from the contractor's failure to perform the work according to contract specifications.

Maintenance Bonds: Guarantee a contract of maintenance, service or warranty for a defined period. These include completion of roads, landscaping, tree bonds, or almost anything a contractor has to finish to receive a final release on a project.

Discharge of Lien Bond: Unfortunately liens happen. Don't let them hold up your project.

Give us an opportunity to evaluate your Surety Needs. We know we can exceed your expectations.
